WRECK AT CALLAHAN
DELAYS TRAIN SERVICE
Train No. 85, known as the Florida and West Indian Limited, (or Overseas Limited), due in Daytona at 5:12, did not arrive Saturday evening until nearly 7:00 o'clock, due to its being wrecked on the Atlantic Coast Line near Callahan. Several cars overturned and a number of passengers were injured,
though none seriously.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE
HELD IN CITY HALL
DR. GEO. F. BABB ADDRESSED
THE MEETING ON THE RAISING OF HOGS, THEIR DISEASES AND PREVENTION.

Dr. Geo. F. Babb, veterinarian, of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, which is co-operating with the University of Florida, arrived in Daytona this morning and opened the Farmers' Institute at the city hall about 11:00 o'clock. About 50 persons were present.
Dr. Babb spoke until the noon hour,
chiefly upon the topic of hogs,
breeding, diseases and the cures for the latter, later making some interesting demonstrations of vaccination and serum for the prevention of hog cholera. The serum for this demonstration was secured from the state board of health by Benford Deacon, secretary of the Daytona board of trade.
Dr. Babb is thoroughly familiar with the subject and his address was very interesting, although there were quite a number present who were disappointed in not hearing more subjects covered.
Dr. Babb impressed the importance of farmers using only thoroughbred hogs and confining themselves to but one of any of the well established breeds. He stated that hogs could be raised in Florida for three cents per pound against double that cost in northern and western states. Sweet potatoes and peanuts were among the principal articles advocated for hog feed here.
Speaking of hog cholera, the principal disease to which the animal is subject, Dr. Babb included among the symptoms of the disease the buzzard and said they should be destroyed on this account. Instead of being provided as scavengers. He explained why the anti-hog cholera serum is made and its application and the treatment of the hog following its use, as

RUSSIANS CONTINUE ADVANCE NORTHWARD

PETROGRAD, FEB. 1.—FOUR GERMAN REGIMENTS PARTICIPATED IN THE ASSAULT AGAINST THE RUSSIAN LINES NEAR BORJIMOW.
SATURDAY. ALL OF THEM LOST HEAVILY. THE RUSSIANS CON-TINUE TO ADVANCE NORTH OF GUMBINNEN AND PILLKALEN, IN EAST PRUSSIA, DESPITE STUBBORN RESISTANCE.
GERMAN TROOPS NORTH OF BORJIMOW SUCCEEDED IN OCCUPY-ING SOME RUSSIAN TRENCHES, BUT LATER WERE DRIVEN OUT.
IN THE CARPATHIANS THE SITUATION IS SATISFACTORY, THE RUSSIANS STEADILY ADVANCING ALONG THE DUKLA PASS-WYSH-KOW LINE.

AUSTRIANS IN GALICIA SUFFER GREAT DEFEAT

PARIS, FEB. 1.—A NEWS DISPATCH STATES THAT THE AUS-TRIANS WERE OVERWHELMINGLY DEFEATED BY THE RUSSIANS
NEAR TARNOW. TWELVE THOUSAND AUSTRIANS WERE EITHER KILLED, WOUNDED OR CAPTURED, AND THE BALANCE OF THE FORCES FLED, LEAVING A LARGE QUANTITY OF GUNS, MUNITIONS AND SUPPLIES.

AMERICAN CRUISER GONE TO HAITI.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The armored cruiser Montana today was ordered to proceed from Guantanamo to Port au Prince, Haiti, to aid in protecting American interests. Revolutionists there are causing alarm.

If you don't trade with us we both lose money

well as many other interesting matters relating to hog raising, and made a strong argument against the breeding of inferior stock and allowing the animals to run at large and virtually look after themselves.
Dr. Babb came to Daytona from Port Orange, where he had been with friends, and goes from this city to Sanford.

CZAR BATTLING TO KEEP OPEN ROAD TO HUNGARY

BERLIN, FEB. 1 (Via wireless).—AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT FROM THE IMPERIAL WAR OFFICE SAYS MOUNTAIN PASSES IN THE CAR-PATHIANS ARE SCENES OF VIOLENT FIGHTING. THE RUSSIANS, HEAVILY RE-ENFORCED, ARE DESPERATELY ATTEMPTING TO KEEP
THE WAY OPEN FOR THE INVASION OF HUNGARY. THE GERMANS
THREW THE RUSSIANS BACK FROM USZOK PASS, AFTER FOUR DAYS'
HARD FIGHTING, ALTHOUGH SUBSEQUENTLY THE GERMANS LOST
SOME OF THE GROUND THEY HAD GAINED.
THE RUSSIANS ARE ATTACKING NEAR REVHELY AND VELEVE.
THERE ARE NO OTHER IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS.

SLEET, SNOW, RAIN IN EASTERN U. S.
ATLANTA, Feb. 1.—Practically the entire eastern half of the United States is storm-swept today. While rain covers the south, sleet and snow are interfering with wire communication and railroad traffic, at the north.

HAS GERMANY SET IN TO CUT OFF BRITISH ISLES FROM REST OF WORLD?

LONDON, FEB. 1.—THREE BRITISH MERCHANT SHIPS HAVE BEEN SUNK IN THE IRISH SEA AND IN THE ENGLISH CHANNEL
DURING THE LAST 48 HOURS.

CONSTERNATION PREVAILS IN SHIPPING CIRCLES, WHERE IT IS NOW BELIEVED THAT GERMANY HAS FINALLY LAUNCHED A SUB-MARINE WAR AGAINST BRITISH SHIPS IN AN EFFORT TO ISOLATE ENGLAND AND CUT OFF HER SUPPLIES.

FEARS ARE FELT FOR THE GIANT SHIP, LUSITANIA, DUE
SHORTLY FROM NEW YORK. THE SHIPS LOST WERE THE TOKO-
MARU, BEN CRUACHEN AND THE LINDA BLANCHE. THE STEAMSHIP KILOCAN WAS ATTACKED, BUT ITS FATE IS UNKNOWN. THE STEAMER IKARIA ARRIVED AT HAVRE, THIS MORNING, IN A SINK-ING CONDITION.

FLETCHER DETERMINED SHIPPING BILL SHALL PASS.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The senate resumed consideration of the shipping bill at 10:00 o'clock this morning. Senator Fletcher, of Florida, who is in charge of the bill, entered the Democratic cloakroom with a large bundle, stating, "I have brought my campaign outfit, and other Democrats are warned to bring theirs. We are going to stay here until we pass this bill."

PENSACOLA EDITOR DIED TODAY.
PENSACOLA, Fla., Feb. 1.—After an illness of five days, Col. Frank Smith, editor of the Journal, died this morning of erysipelas and pleurisy.
He was prominent in Florida politics.

ORMOND FIRE CAUSES LOSS TO OLD SETTLER

Fire from an unknown cause, which broke out shortly after 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, totally destroyed the home of Ross Adams, an old settler of Ormond, and partially destroyed the livery stable of D. W. Waldron. The loss of the Adams home was approximately $3,000, covered by insurance to the extent of only $850. The Waldron stable was also partially insured. A phone message to the Daytona fire department for help sent Chief French and a number of men hurrying to Ormond with chemicals. The fire squad of the Hotel Ormond also did valiant work and thus probably checked the spread of the flames to adjoining buildings.

AUTO ACCIDENT ON THE DELAND ROAD

PARTY FROM THIS CITY DE-LAYED UNTIL WHEEL COULD BE TAKEN TO THEM AND FIT-TED TO MACHINE.

J. Wesley Johnson, Daytona's sanitary inspector, met with an automobile accident while returning from Deland Sunday afternoon that delayed him well into the evening, but fortunately resulted in no injury to himself or other occupants of his car. Mr.
Johnson was accompanied at the time
by his wife and little daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Michael.

In a place on the Deland road,
where the use of the scraper had narrowed the roadway, he was run into by a big car driven by Don Kaffer of DeLand and his left front wheel was knocked to pieces.

J. K. Maley and C. A. Gontz were returning to this city just ahead of Mr. Johnson in Mr. Maley's car, but did not know of the accident until their arrival here. Mr. Maley returned to the scene, taking with him a new wheel, but the bolts proved to be too short and it was necessary to build a fire, heat the bolts and beat them out to sufficient length, which was accomplished by Mr. Maley, and the party reached home shortly before 10:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Russell Patch, of Hawks Park, visited her friends, Dr. and Mrs. S.
H. Rhoades, from Tuesday until Saturday of last week at their winter home on Second avenue.

WILL SHOW INTERESTING VIEWS OF TOUR OF PALESTINE
T. H. Rice, of Veedersburg, Ind., will be in town for a few days at the Hotel, will show some interesting views, descriptive of his recent tour of Palestine, at the Christian temple tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. No admission will be charged,

"A Scrap of Paper"

Written Especially for the Daily News

By DR. CHARLES FREDERIC GOSS

Author "Redemption of David Corson"

The German imperial chancellor is appear to hang upon those same having "the time of his life" to ex- "scraps of paper!" Certificates of baptism and of marriage are but plain away the odious implication of his now immortal designation of a "scraps of paper!" The bond which a man gives when he borrows money to build his home, and the check with which he is enabled to draw his savings from the bank are "scraps of paper." The letter which a young man wrote to his Irish sweetheart, in which he promised to pay her expenses to California and marry her when she arrived, was "a scrap of paper." The Declaration of Independence, the Proclamation of Emancipation, and the Constitution of the United States are but "scraps of paper!"

It seems incredible that any man, and especially any man upon whose words the destinies of nations might be turning, could have uttered that terrible phrase in the silence of his closet even, to say nothing of doing it in the presence of a listening world.

Let humanity lose it's sense of the sacredness of those "scraps of paper" and civilization could scarcely endure for a day. Men's words of honor and written agreements are the bonds that hold the world together. If all its statesmen should undertake to find a symbol that would represent, in the highest possible degree, the security of human life, they could not find a better one than that despised "scrap of paper."

"A scrap of paper!" To sneer at an object so holy is almost as wicked as to profane the name of the Deity! Think for a single moment to how great a degree the destinies of men

LOCAL MERCHANTS DESERVE BOOSTING

MONEY SPENT AT HOME BUILDS UP YOUR TOWN AND EVENTUALLY WORKS OUT FOR THE GOOD OF ALL CONCERNED.

A Daytona resident, who bought a cooking range through a Chicago mail house and upon its arrival here found it so completely broken up that he was compelled to ship the range back, has been cured of his desire to buy goods out of town. He agrees with a certain German farmer of the State of Iowa, who has written his views on the subject of benefits (?) to be derived from sending his money out of town.

Here is a part of his story: "We farmers need awakening to the fact that we have unmistakably reached the period where we must think and plan. I am one of the slow German farmers that had to be shown, and I am now giving my experience that others may profit, for knowledge is more expensive now than ten years ago."

"Twenty-nine years ago I began my farm career. I had an old team and $50. Our furniture was mostly home-made--chairs, cupboard and lounge made from dry goods boxes, neatly covered with tenebrous cretone by my girl wife. We rented eighty acres little villages in the state--good line of business in all branches, merchants who were willing to help an honest fellow over a bad year, and a town full of people who came twice a week to trade and visit. Our little country town supported a library, high school, ball team, and we had big celebrations every year.

"A farm near a live town soon doubles in value. I sold my forty acres at a big advance and bought an eighty, gradually adding to it until I had 200 acres of the best land in Iowa. I then felt no need of asking favors, and found it easy to patronize the mail order agents that came almost weekly to our door. I regret to say that I was the first in the county to make up a neighborhood bill and send it to a mail order house. Though we got bit every once in a while, we got in the habit of sending away for stuff.

"Gradually our merchants lessened their stock of goods--for lack of patronage. Finally we began to realize that we needed a bolt quickly for machinery, or clothing for sickness or death, which wasn't so pleasant. One by one our merchants moved to places where they were appreciated, and men of less energy moved in. Gradually our town has gone down; our business houses are 'tacky' in appearance, a number are empty; our schools, churches and walks are going down, we have no band, no library nor ball team. There is no business done in the town, and therefore no taxes to keep things up."

NELLIE BLY IN HUNGARIAN CAPITAL

(Below follows the last of Miss Nellie Bly's special correspondence from Budapest, Hungary, to the International News Service.)

BUDAPEST, Nov. 19. — I must tell you about our trip to some of the military hospitals. We gathered at the town hall, by appointment with the mayor. We were ushered into a room filled with paintings so fine I was sorry I had not time to examine them.

A door in the rear of the room opened and a medium-sized man, in a dark blue, double-breasted coat, entered. He greeted our Commander Harbaugh. He was then introduced to each of us by name, I coming first.
The commander showed a good memory by introducing each by name, and stating what country he came from.
Then, standing near us, the mayor
read his speech of welcome.

We all thanked him, and then he said he would accompany us to some of the hospitals. At the door we found six limousines and one omnibus.

At the Hospital.

The first hospital was a fine, four-story building, occupying over half a city block. Within the door stood a group of gentlemen waiting to receive us. The tallest one, in a handsome uniform, with four gold medals on his breast, was the commander of the hospital. He is professor of surgery—Dr. Jules Dollinger. His lifelong friend is Dr. Arbat Gerstach, of the Mount Sinai hospital. Dr. Macdonald, who witnessed some operations by Professor Dollinger, says he is the most marvellous surgeon of the world. He speaks English perfectly and has the most charmingly engaging manner.

This hospital was a factory for the manufacture of electrical supplies. It is new, fireproof, and has unsurpassed light, as it is almost all windows. It belongs to Budapest, whose authorities mean to retain it as a hospital.

It is situated on the Danube and has its own boat-landing and railroad car track into its courtyard. This saves the painful work of transferring the wounded.

Rapid Work.

Dr. Dollinger fitted up this hospital in twenty-one days. He has thirty-four surgeons and as many assistants. He has 120 voluntary nurses and eighteen Red Cross. They work in two shifts a day. They have 1,000 wounded men. One ward alone holds 250 beds. With that there is no crowding and no hospital odor. If the building had been designed for a hospital it would not be so good.

On the ground floor was a big hall
where the injured are received.
From this they are taken to the bathrooms, where twenty men are bathed at a time. Then their hair is cut and beards clipped. Whether able to move or not, they are wrapped in blankets, put on a stretcher and carried to the examination room.

If an operation is necessary they are taken to the operating room; if not, to the bandaging room. Both these large rooms are magnificently fitted up. Three X-ray machines show what bullets and shrapnel has done to bones.

Every patient is then taken to the great hall, where 350 beds are located.
This is the observation ward. They are kept here five days.

Fear the Plague.

If no epidemic appears in this time
they are transferred to the wards applicable to their cases. If cholera or other diseases appear they are taken to the quarantine barracks, which occupy the other part of the city block.

Since the beginning of the war 2,800 patients have been brought here. Of that number only fourteen have died.

All others have recovered or are on the mend.

The kitchen was modern to the limit. Electrically driven machines do everything from grinding coffee
to mixing bread.

We again entered our automobiles and drove to a hospital fitted up and maintained by the Hungarian financial houses. It was also a factory building erected for the manufacturing of telephones. It would be impossible to construct a more modern or fireproof building. It must cover at least a city block. This hospital was fitted up in twenty-five days.
The fittings cost 100,000 kronen. Dr.
Wilhelm Manninger, who attended the international convention in the United States last summer, is in charge. It is so systematized that they take complete care of a wounded man in one-half minute.

When the wounded are brought into the reception hall they are given a number, which is tied to their wrist.

They are taken into another room and undressed. Their clothes are put in a bundle and given the same number as on their wrist. The patient goes to the bathroom and the clothing goes to a sterilizing room, and after being thoroughly cleaned is stored with the number still attached. This hospital has four X-ray machines.

"GOOSE GIRL" A RARE TREAT FOR HIGH CLASS AUDIENCES

"The Goose Girl," produced by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play company, which is to be the offering on Tuesday, February 2, at the Crystal, with little Marguerite Clark in the stellar role of the title character, should prove a rare treat for high-class audiences. It is not often that the imagination is led so delightfully far afield from the monotonous routine and problems of daily life into the realms of romantic and far-distant principalities.

The ambitions of the chancellor of Ehrenstein, who wants to put his own daughter on the throne, are responsible for the complications—for the kidnapping of the real princess in her infancy, for the attempt, fifteen years later, to identify the chancellor's child as the lost princess; and even for the final arrangement of the many threads in the narrative. It is hard to say whether Miss Clark, who appears by the courtesy of the Famous Players, is more fascinating as the "Goose Girl" or as the real princess, when she is finally seated on her rightful throne.

SEVEN SKELETONS FOUND AT QUIET PONCE PARK

(By L. C. Demaree.)

PONCE PARK, Feb. 1.—The everyday quiet for which Ponce Park is characterized, a quietude which commands it to folks who have acquired "nerves" through a too close attention to shops and trades in the hurly-burly of the busy marts; Ponce Park, the haven of belle and matron who, surfeited with entertainments and clubs, want to flee from it to recuperate; Ponce Park, the mecca to which fishermen turn for real results while angling; Ponce Park, quiet, restful, nestled among the live oaks, the white cottages peekin' coyly out from a background of blushing tangerines and temptingly fat grapefruit clusters; Ponce Park, with its multiplied thousands of graceful gulls and clumsy pelicans; with such a setting you will agree that a Ponce Park "thrill" seems altogether incongruous, and yet this is just what Ponce Park is experiencing, and a thrill different from the current sensations of Marcy Darnalls with a bunch of weeping young wives and newling infants; no looting of bank and dashing off in high-powered car, firing at a brace of cops behind lamp posts while the villain has one foot on the bulging handbag of swag and is kicking at the speed pedals with the other.

Ponce Park is all stirred up over the discovery of seven skeletons which Postmaster Frank Stone has just dug up from his back lot. Mr. Stone has busied himself for several days past grubbing some palmetto, live oak and bay bushes near the east line of his property, and along the road leading south to the lighthouse. Imagine his surprise on a recent afternoon to strike into a human skull! The skull was broken into fragments by a stroke with the grubbing hoe, and picking up a piece of the cranium wall Mr. Stone lamented that he had broken a piece of pottery which he thought might have been a well-preserved little stew kettle. Upon further search he was surprised to find that it was human remains he had dug into. He then began a careful excavation and was rewarded by finding the entire skeleton, save only a few of the smaller bones.

Extending the search he found other skeletons and kept on until he had exhumed seven.

Naturally one would surmise—who were they? what the occasion of their death, how long ago? Truly a history of their coming, their mission, experiences, their untimely deaths—untimely unless perchance they were cut-throat pirates—would make an interesting chapter.

Capt. B. J. Pacetti suggests that they may have been the crew of some wrecked sailing vessel, and were victims of an Indian massacre. Others express the opinion that they were unfortunates of Dr. Turnbull's colony brought over from the Balearic Isles, many of whom met violent deaths from time to time from one cause and another; others think they may have been "good Indians" of the long ago; another thinks they may have been killed during the civil war, as a number of skirmishes took place in the vicinity of the inlet during those days. It is recalled that when the road was graded through from river to ocean fifteen or more years ago a 24-pound cannon ball was dug up in the grading. This ball was dropped by a Union gunboat.

Charles W. Jones, now one of the oldest citizens here, cleared a tract of land where he now resides, and in his clearing found a human skeleton. Among the bones he found an old flint-lock pistol, a small "daguerreotype" picture frame and some brass buttons. The bones just found probably antedate the bones found thirty years ago by Mr. Jones. At least there are no trinket concomitants—nothing to offer any clue as to time, race or anything else. The bones appear to be those of mature men of average build. The only auxiliary find was a half-buried coral rock, a beautiful specimen of coral, weighing about ten pounds. This coral rock may have been a marker. The skeletons were under twin live oaks. The rock was about three feet south of the tree farthest south and within one foot of the nearest skull. Whether by mere chance or by design no one can say, but the twin oaks stand a step apart, north and south, another step would bring you to the coral rock, and a foot farther was the nearest body.

The inference of foul play is strong. The bodies seem to have been fairly piled on each other, as many of the bones of the arms and legs lay crosswise, and the skulls of several were in such proximity as to indicate a hasty burial or a reckless indifference and disregard of the customary forms of disposing of the dead.

As to the manner of death this is purely speculative. Some of the skulls are whole, even to the lower jaw, with many of the teeth, while others are cracked and naturally very much eroded. If the bodies were buried at all only a little earth was scraped away and a superficial covering made as the skeletons were only a few inches below the surface. Small roots from the trees and bushes have insinuated themselves into the skulls through the openings of the eye-sockets, the nostrils, etc.

Captain Pacetti is sure his father, Capt. Bartholomew Pacetti, knew nothing of any such massacre, or of its history, or he would have told of it within his lifetime. The elder Pacetti came here in 1843, 72 years ago. There was a massacre by the Indians south of the inlet shortly after his coming here. The victims in that case were shipwrecks. After the Indians withdrew toward the west Captain Pacetti and others went across the inlet and buried the victims of the massacre.

It seems that this present rural retreat in the years, the centuries gone, has witnessed many conflicts, life and death struggles. Through ages untold the tide has flowed and ebbed while the endless schools of fishes filled the waters; the water birds blackened the water and the tide water streams were fairly choked with savory mollusks. Such were the enticing delicacies that man has frequented these shores centuries before Europeans knew there was a world on this side of the ocean. The pottery of the aborigines buried in the huge shell mounds bear mute witness of their presence here through the centuries.

Veterans of the late war say that the shell mound, now owned by Theodore Rhodes, and surrounded by a beautiful citrus grove, bore evidence of having been used as an ancient fort. It was a striking landmark here and commanded a fine view and range of the Halifax river, at the same time affording protection to those at the mound.

Grandma Sheldon, who died at a ripe old age at New Smyrna, a comparatively few years ago, little dreamed when she played as a girl under the giant limbs of centuries-old live oaks growing on an old shell mound at her doorsteps that several feet beneath the shells were buried concrete steps and masonry, the work of a people who lived so long ago that God only knows their history.

PENNSYLVANIA MAN DIED EARLY SUNDAY

HARRY C. ADAMS, PROMINENT CITIZEN OF BEAVER FALLS,
YIELDED TO VALVULAR DIS-EASE OF THE HEART.

At one of the local tourist hotels,
Sunday morning at 7:00 o'clock Harry
C. Patterson succumbed to valvular disease of the heart. He had been suffering for several days, but until Saturday night, when his condition grew worse, had not been seriously ill.

The deceased gentleman's body was embalmed at the undertaking department of Bingham & Maley, and left Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock, via the F. E. C. railway, for Beaver Falls, accompanied by his sister, Miss Patterson. The funeral and interment will occur at that place the latter part of this week.

Mr. Patterson and his sister, Miss Sallie Patterson, had been coming to Daytona annually each winter for several years, from their home at Beaver

Falls, Pa. This season they came early, as was their usual custom.

Mr. Patterson was a prominent business man in his home city, being a director in one of the leading banks there. He was 75 years old, and had never married. To the maiden sister who always accompanied him on his trips south he was greatly attached, always evincing the greatest solicitude for her welfare and comfort.
Here and in the peninsula towns he was known to a number of people with whom he was popular.

MORAL: DON'T LET
HUMPHRIES HEAR
THE "BONES" RATTLE.

Something ought to be done in the way of reforming those bad Roe and Doe boys. In fact, something was done for them Monday morning;
that is, something was done to a half dozen of them when they stood up in the municipal court and pleaded guilty to a gambling charge. More explicitly speaking, Officer Humphries was over at the F. E.
C. passenger station Sunday afternoon, when, from the direction of the ladies' retiring room, he heard a noise that sounded like the rattle and clatter of dry bones. Investigation disclosed that it was dry bones—a pair of them which some artistically inclined person had decorated with little black spots. The bones were cubic in shape, presenting a sextuple of flat surfaces, on each of which were spots ranging in number from one to six. Now, these Roe and Doe boys had a unique way of betting each other that a peculiar manipulation of the bones would or would not result in spots numbering seven showing up permost before another number, previously chosen, presented itself. It was a great little game, but Humphries placed it in the same category with "crap" shooting, and proceeded to place a bunch of the boys under arrest. Mayor Titus, when the matter was brought to his attention, decided that the game was quite as nefarious as is betting on what cotton and wheat markets will do, so he fined the lads

$2 each and costs.

One of the boys ran from the officer

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

Walter H. Guard, hotel owner and proprietor in New Haven and Hartford, Conn., is expected to arrive at the Ridgewood within the next few days. He is owner of the Guard hotel at Hartford.

Saturday's evening's hop at the Ridgewood was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by the many guests now stopping at that hostelry. The regular semi-weekly dances at the Ridgewood are enjoyable features and add much to the life of the hotel.

LeRoy Sohn and W. I. Phillips, both of whom are from New York city, man now stopping at the Ridgewood. They make their daily pilgrimage to the shrine of Isaac Walton, rain or shine, and report the fishing in and around Daytona wholly to their liking.

Miss M. M. White, who has been stopping at the Despland for several weeks, was again the successful contender for "putting" honors at the hotel Saturday. Miss White was winner of the ladies' prize putter at the match of a week ago, so that with the prize of Saturday morning added to her collection, she has gained an enviable reputation. Mr. Burrows, a guest registered from Philadelphia, was winner of the gentlemen's prize, another handsome putter offered by the hotel management.

STEVENSON'S WRITINGS

SOLD IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—An important collection of books and manuscripts were sold recently at the Anderson art galleries. They were the works of Robert Louis Stevenson, owned by Mrs. Salisbury Field.

Among the manuscripts of Stevenson are 145 pages of his first serious attempt at novel writing. "The Hair Trunk, or the Ideal Commonwealth; an Extravaganza," which is described in a letter in 1877 as "a most absurd story of a lot of young Cambridge fellows who are going to found a new society, with no ideas on the subject, and nothing but Bohemian tastes in the place of ideas—but the trunk is the fun of it—everybody steals it."

Another unpublished manuscript is "How Books Have to Be Written," in which he says:—"It may seem very easy to write the truth . . . but whenever people try for something larger and longer . . . they begin to find it exceedingly difficult to tell the truth . . . and it is by what he puts in that he manages to tell so many lies."

"When the Devil Was Well" is another unpublished manuscript, being one of Stevenson's earliest attempts at novel writing. It was not published because of unfavorable criticisms by the author's friends and his father. The scene is in Italy in renaissance times.

Among the published or partly published manuscripts are early drafts of "A Mountain Town in France."

Youthful Diplomat.

Harry is small but diplomatic. The other day he wanted his mother to come out on the veranda with him. The mother, being busy, refused, and Harry invented various expedients, from informing her that he was tired and lonely to complaining of a pain in his tummy, in the hope of inducing her to change her mind. Finally he called sweetly: "Mother, dear, I don't want you to stay out here if you don't want to, but I do want to kiss you very much." Mother came out.

To Clean Bottles.

Never use tacks or buckshot to clean the inside of bottles, jugs and pitchers, but the ground shell of an egg, salt and lemon or a little white vinegar. A piece of raw potato soaked in a carafe or any of the deeper pieces will help to make brightening a light task and cleaning still easier.

Town Bars Women.

The Asiatic town of Malwatch, on the borders of Russia, is peopled by men only. Women are forbidden entrance there.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR CIVIL WAR VETERAN

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE SWEENEY ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF
HENRY F. PRICE—WAS 71ST BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Henry F. Price, a resident of Sutton, Mass., was given a surprise birthday party at the home of George Sweeney on Coates street last Friday night. About twenty friends gathered for the occasion and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Miss Vesta Hart acted as pianist, George Sweeney played the kettle drum, Mrs. Henry F. Price sang a solo, all of which served to entertain the guests in a most pleasant manner.

There were three veterans of the Civil war present, namely, Henry F. Price, William Gimbert and Daniel Osburn, all of whom told war stories that were both interesting and amusing. A. K. Groves gave two readings which were highly appreciated, followed by the execution of an old-time dance, much to the amusement of the entire party. William P. Bauer also entertained with several very interesting stories.

Choice refreshments were served about 11:00 o'clock, after which Mr. Price made a few remarks. He said: "This is my 71st birthday and I am feeling more youthful all the time." During his little speech, the veteran said he could not remember when he had spent a more enjoyable evening than the celebration of his 71st anniversary. Mr. Price was the recipient of many kind birthday remembrances.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bauer, Sae City, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. William Gimbert, Adrian, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Groves, Cambridge Springs, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. D. Osburn, Rutland, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hart, Akron, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney, the Misses E. Sweeney, M. Sweeney, and A. Sweeney, Daytona Beach; Mrs. H. F. Wiebe and Miss Lillian Wiebe, Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Price, Sutton, Mass.

Mrs. Woodward owns a cottage on North Halifax avenue at Seabreeze, but had not been south for three or four years, and is here partly on business this season. Her friends are very glad to have her with them again, and will regret to learn of the death of her adopted son and also of her father and mother since she was here last.

Because of the death of Mrs. Wilson, there will be no official functions at the White House this winter. This means that there will be a general relinquishment for the season of most of the usual formal entertainment.

TWO CLEVELAND PARTIES STOPPING AT CLARENDON

Two Cleveland, Ohio, parties are guests at the Clarendon for an indefinite period. They came in Saturday, and the young people, especially, are making things lively by entering into the sports connected with the hotel, such as golf, tennis, bathing and horseback riding. The first party to arrive consists of Mrs. H. M. Klinger, Miss Simpson and Miss McMillen, and the second party is made up of Mrs. E. E. Saeger, Miss Inez Saeger and Miss Gertrude Saeger. The large showing of young people at the Clarendon this year is most noticeable and is looked upon as a decided attraction since a majority of the young ladies are of the sort who indulge in outdoor sports at which the gentlemen are privileged to participate.

Mutt and Jeff made a hit at the Nauticus casino Saturday night. If the young ladies who were with them wish to learn their real names address Thos. L. and Frank S.

Among the extra diners at the Clarendon Saturday were F. H. Fisher, Miss Mary Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Uebelhoer, all of Chicago.

Wise Youth.

"I have a temperament," simpered the girl. "Then you are not destined for a man who is earning 25 plunks a week," responded the young man, reaching for his hat.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Qualities to Cultivate.

Guard within yourself the treasure, kindness. Know how to give without hesitation, know how to lose without regret, how to acquire without meanness. Know how to replace in your heart the happiness that may be wanted in yourself.—E. W. Faber.

CLARENDON REGISTER SHOWS RAPID GAINS

A long list of guests registered at the Clarendon Saturday and Sunday, some of whom were enroute to points further south. These took their departure Monday, expecting to return later on in the season. Of the number who remained, a large majority of them have taken accommodations for the balance of the season.

The list includes Wm. A. Nelson, Ansonia, Conn.; F. H. Ward, Portsmouth, N.H.; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Loveland and child, Kalamazoo, Mich.; John W. Frothingham and Miss Elizabeth Frothingham, Tarrytown, N. Y.; Edward C. Smith, New York city; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Buckminster, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. George N. Neff, Kansas city; D. W. Rice, Mrs. Rice and child, and Miss Elsie Stuart, Washington, D. C.; D. S. Acker, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. S. A. Stewart, Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. George M. Verity, Mrs. Mary E. Oglesby, and Mrs. Mary E. McCoy, Middletown, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Daus, Evansville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Pierson and D. S. Murray, New York city; Mrs. H. M. Klinger, Miss Simpson, Miss McMillen, Mrs. E. E. Saeger, Miss Inez Saeger, and Miss Gertrude Saeger, Cleveland, Ohio.

How Have We Failed?

Where the company are real gentlemen and men of education . . . they have no nonsense or games, but are contented with one another's conversation.—Plato.

Ever Think of This?

A man who never laughs may be very serious minded; and on the other hand he may not have mental energy enough to try to understand a joke.

CLARENDON BOYS HAND KNOCKOUT TO ORMOND

The Clarendon base ball club delivered a knockout to the Hotel Ormond boys on Saturday afternoon that will require a long time for them to recover from its jarring effects. The count was exactly 19-3 which shows that the Clarendon tossers had thing their own way from the sound of the gong. Much credit is due the battery, composed of Kane and Tillman, who did excellent work and was the means of keeping their opponents score down to three runs. The game was witnessed by a large crowd, many of whom went by auto from Seabreeze.

MIDDLETOWN, OHIO, REPRESENTED AT CLARENDON

A party from Middletown, Ohio, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Verity, Mrs. Mary E. Oglesby and Mrs. Mary E. McCoy arrived at the Clarendon Saturday and will spend some time there.

Discretion.

There is no talent so useful towards rising in the world, or which puts men more out of the reach of fortune, than that quality generally possessed by the duller sort of men, and in common speech called discretion; a species of lower prudence, by the assistance of which people of the meanest intellects, without any other qualification, pass through the world in great tranquillity, and with universal good treatment, neither giving nor taking offense.—Swift.

Unfortunate State of Mind.

"To have a grudge against everybody, or even against nearly everybody, is a most suspicious frame of mind to be in."

NEW YORKERS IN LOVE WITH SEABREEZE AND CLARENDON

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Pierson, who have been guests at the Clarendon since Friday, left yesterday in their Mercier raceabout for Palm Beach, where they will spend the balance of the winter. The Piersons were accompanied by D. S. Murray who will be their guest for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Pierson are New Yorkers, as is also Mr. Murray, and despite the fact that the former have a beautiful home at Palm Beach, the entire party was carried away with Seabreeze and the big fire proof structure by the sea. They will return north in April and have made reservations to stop over several days at the Clarendon.

MEMBERS OF BIG GROCERY CONCERN LIKES CLARENDON

D. S. Acker, a member of the firm of Finley & Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., dealers in fancy groceries, is a guest at Hotel Clarendon for several days. Mr. Acker thinks the big fire proof structure is one of the finest hostleries in the south and never tires of watching the blue waters of the Atlantic from the windows of his room. He will remain some time in Florida.

Cleaned Up His City.

Resenting the assertion that Sydney, Australia, was the dirtiest town in the southern hemisphere, the lord mayor organized a special force of a hundred police for the preservation of good order, cleanliness and neatness.

Too Poor.

Tom—"Dearst, I have no wealth to offer you, my brains are all the fortune I possess." Ed—"Oh, Tom, if you are as badly off as that I'm afraid papa will never give his consent."—Boston Evening Transcript.

IS WARDEN OSBORNE'S PLAN A WISE ONE?

The man who took to highway robbery in order to be sent to Sing Sing, where, he said, he "had heard how good Warden Osborne was to the prisoners, and how he gave them 'first nights' and motion pictures," is worth nothing. There are sure to be more of him.

In cold weather, everybody knows, men commit petty crimes to get food and shelter on the Island—which has few enough attractions. What, then, is likely to be the effect of the widely advertised comforts and diversions which the new warden is offering "up the river?"

A prison should be clean and humane. Ought it to go so far as to make anybody feel unhappy to be outside its walls instead of inside? Most of Warden Osborne's reforms are hourly to be commended. But shouldn't it be wiser to color them a little less rosily and let jail remain jail?

BRIEF FACTS ABOUT AMERICAN RAILROADS

The Michigan Central will employ girl waiters in dining cars making short runs.

Since the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway considerable mining activity has developed in western Alberta.

In accordance with the general policy of retrenchment being practiced by railroads all over the country; the western carriers have eliminated the illuminated signs on the back of passenger trains.

Because there is no prospect of an early ending of the war in Europe, many tourists who usually go abroad will spend the winter in Florida. The Southern railroads, have, therefore, prepared for a large increase in business.

Employees of the Harriman railroads have been advised to take three baths very week and to cultivate a love for music, art and literature. The object is to encourage greater efficiency.

Vice-president Elliott of the New Haven railroad says that not only is the general level of railroad rates too low in the United States under present conditions of wages, taxes, rates of interest, elaborate and luxurious service and very necessary provision for safety and dispatch, but many individual rates are entirely too low.

SECOND MONTH OF ITALY'S MORATORIUM

ROME, Feb. 1.—Royal decree issued establishing a moratorium, under special conditions, providing for the organization of an institute, with a capital of $5,000,000, from which industrial loans may be obtained, and authorizing municipalities to unite in groups for the purchase, even abroad, of cereals and their resale for home consumption, entered upon its second month today. It has operated to great national benefit.

CONTRACTOR S. P. MEACHUM INJURED BY FALLING BOARD

S. P. Meachum, a local contractor, met with a painful accident late Friday afternoon while supervising some repairs on the Christian church at Palmetto avenue near Live Oak street. Mr. Meachum was standing on the ground when a board was dislodged from the roof of the building by workmen, and in falling struck him full in the face. The injured man was hurriedly carried to Dr. Klock's hospital where it was found a portion of the upper lip was torn away, loosening three teeth and inflicting a deep wound that required several stitches to close. Had it not been for an upward tilt of the man's head just as the board struck him and first, it would have landed on the top of his head in which case instant death would probably have resulted.

PEOPLE'S NOSES ARE MUCH ABUSED ORGANS

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—One of the most prominent physicians in New York city has called attention to the fact that the average man pays no attention to the most prominent feature of his face—the nose. As a rule he clamps it with eyeglasses that pinch too much or impose upon it spectacles that are altogether too heavy. Then he wonders, continues the doctor, why the nose increases in size or perhaps in redness. Every part of the face comes in for a vigorous scrubbing, but the nose, which needs it most of all; yet it is apt to be passed over gently—probably because it is being breathed through during the nose gives more and more evidence of being neglected. The tissues become flabby and the pores are filled up. A little massage would work wonders in such cases, but it is rarely given.

COMMISSION SUSPENDS INCREASE IN RATES

DAYTONA MAN RETURNS TO CITY WITH DELAND BRIDE

Geo. H. Foote, Jr., who was married in Jacksonville Saturday, January 23rd, returned to Daytona Saturday with his bride, coming from Miami where they had been spending their honeymoon. Mrs. Foote was Miss Emma Cannons, of DeLand, and Mr. Foote is well known in both Daytona and the county seat in which cities the couple have many friends to wish them wedded happiness.

Mrs. Washington Winsor and daughter, Miss Charlotte F. Winsor, of New York, who were guests for several weeks at the Howard hotel, have rented and are occupying for the remainder of the season the east half of the John Case double house on Volusia avenue.

J. G. Brown reports the rainfall for the month of January to have been 5.1 inches, with eight rainy days. That of January of last year was 7.13 inches, with the same number of rainy days. The past December, with eight days also of rain, gave only 3.40 inches of rain. There were many days of cloudy weather in December, however, with slight mists of rain too light to be registered.

A five-passenger car was reposing in the ditch along the west side of the Ormond-Daytona road at the intersection of Forest avenue in the town of Holly Hill this morning, having met with the mishap some time between Sunday afternoon and this morning. The car bore a Michigan number, 43408, and also a Volusia county number, 403.
